H. PROPERTY OF THE CENTRAL BANK OF KUWAIT

I

The shortfall in the property received is represented by banknotes in the amount of 46,261,292.00 Kuwaiti dinars that were not returned.

II

The condition in which items were returned is as follows:

The stolen gold dies were returned, but most of them had scratches and dents. They must therefore be sent to specialist companies abroad for recasting and restoration to their former state in order to preserve their value. This will cost some 540,000.00 Kuwaiti dinars.

There is damage to three of the safes returned, and the estimated cost of repairs is 500.00 Kuwaiti dinars.

I. CENTRAL LIBRARY OF KUWAIT

I. Property that has not been returned

1. 140 manuscripts.
2. 128 antique musical instruments.
3. 3,200 cassette tapes from the audio-visual materials library consisting of recordings of cultural seminars and lectures held since 1968 at various centres and locations in the country.
4. 6,000 cassette tapes from the music library with recordings of songs connected with the Gulf, Arab and Islamic heritage.
5. 5,000 reels of microfilm of Kuwaiti daily newspapers, manuscripts, rare books and old periodicals.
